A SMART INVESTMENT IN YOUR FUTURE

As a Macquarie University student, you will benefit from our real-world approach to learning, practical experiences that give you work-ready skills, and a high-tech campus uniquely located to give you exposure to leading companies.

Employers worldwide prefer our graduates because they know that at Macquarie you don't just learn from textbooks. You learn from internationally respected researchers, unique industry collaborations and programs that give you the real-world experiences and leadership skills employers look for. CEOs surveyed in The New York Times ranks Macquarie in the world's top 100 universities for graduate recruitment (2012 Global Employability Survey).

★★★★★ Rated QS 5 stars for Employability

HIGH-TECH CAMPUS

Over AU$1 billion has recently been invested in the Macquarie campus to give you the very best facilities for learning, research and recreation. Macquarie's library is unique in Australia, with the country's first robotic storage and retrieval system, and we also host the most technologically advanced private hospital on an Australian university campus.

★★★★★ Rated QS 5 stars for Facilities

GRADUATE SUCCESS

At Macquarie, we support you to undertake internships, international experiences and leadership programs to make you stand out to employers worldwide. Our Global Leadership Program can be completed alongside any degree at Macquarie and provides outstanding opportunities to build important leadership skills.

A dedicated Career and Employment Service also helps you develop the confidence and skills you need to launch, or further, your career.

★★★★★ Rated QS 5 stars for Employability

A SUPPORTIVE, MULTICULTURAL COMMUNITY

Macquarie provides a welcoming home to over 11,000 students from more than 100 countries. With support from application to graduation and a leading English language school on campus, Macquarie will help you transition to Australian university life and achieve your best. We also boast a global alumni network of 140,000 graduates in 140 countries, giving you invaluable professional connections throughout the world.

★★★★★ Rated QS 5 stars for Innovation

RESEARCH EXCELLENCE

Despite being a relatively young university, Macquarie has established an enviable reputation for research excellence, particularly in the sciences, social sciences and professional disciplines.

In 2012, the Australian Government's Excellence in Research for Australia evaluation, Macquarie achieved a maximum 5 rating (indicating performance well above world standard) in three research disciplines: Earth sciences, environmental sciences and physical sciences. In total, 85 per cent of Macquarie's research activity was rated as world standard or higher.
